SCHOFIELD SOCIETY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, May 13.—On Saturday afternoon of last week a very attractive bridge-luncheon was given by Mrs. Jerome Pillow in honor of Mrs. Allen B. Smith, mother of Mrs. Clarence R. Day, and of Mrs. John Guilfoyle. The guests assembled at 11 o'clock and enjoyed a succession of auction rubbers at the several tables placed through the charming flower-decked rooms. At the conclusion of the playing it was found that the table scores were held by Mesdames Frank Halstead, Chalmers Hall, William Forsyth, Henry S. Kilbourne, Swift Martin, William McLeave and Pelham D. Glassford. The dainty prizes were unusually pretty bowls of Chinese-ware filled with quaint bouquets of garden flowers, candy-tuft, daisies, forget-me-nots, and begonia, their old-timey atmosphere giving a lovely touch to the affair. Tables were changed for luncheon, which was a dainty and delicious meal. Mrs. Guilfoyle was presented with a fragrant bouquet of sweet peas and ferns, while Mrs. Smith's souvenir was a graceful basket filled with violets. The guests were Mesdames Frederick Strong, John Guilfoyle, Samson L. Faison, Allen Smith, William Forsyth, Frank Albright, Frank Halstead, Walter Short, Horace Bloomergh, Clyde Crusan, Edward Carey, Frank Keefer, Daniel Guinty, Swift Martin, Charles Naylor, W. H. McGill, Walter Pridgen, John Fair, Henry Kilbourne, William McLeave, Chalmers Hall, Raymond Pratt, Livingston Watrous, George Callender, John Renshaw, Clarence Day and Pelham Glassford.

On Friday of last week, Major and Mrs. Eugene H. Hartnett were dinner hosts when they entertained for ten. The table presented a very charming appearance in its decorations of green and white; asters combined with maidenhair fern made an effective centerpiece, while the green and white note was carried out in the graceful festoons of tulle laid along the cloth, and in the shades surmounting the candelabra. Covers were placed for Colonel and Mrs. George G. Bailey, Captain and Mrs. Paul McCook, Lieutenant and Mrs. Elvid Hunt, Lieutenant and Mrs. Byard Sneed, and Major and Mrs. Hartnett.

On Wednesday a meeting of the Musical Club took place with Mrs. E. H. Hartnett as hostess, and a most enjoyable afternoon was spent.

General and Mrs. Frederick S. Strong entertained on Tuesday last with a dinner for twelve, the guests being Colonel and Mrs. John Guilfoyle, Colonel and Mrs. Henry C. Hodges, Colonel and Mrs. Samson L. Faison, Colonel and Mrs. William W. Forsyth, and Lieutenant and Mrs. William E. Shedd.

A very delightful dinner took place on Saturday evening last, aboard the Presidente Sarmiento, Captain Yards entertaining for General and Mrs. John P. Wisser, General and Mrs. Frederick S. Strong, Admiral and Mrs. Clifford Boush, and the Chilean Consul and Mrs. J. W. Waldron.

Captain and Mrs. Hugh Wise gave a dinner on Wednesday for Colonel and Mrs. Henry C. Hodges, Colonel and Mrs. John Guilfoyle, Colonel and Mrs. Samson L. Faison, Colonel and Mrs. William W. Forsyth, and Mrs. J. P. Barney.

Mrs. John P. Wisser was the guest of honor at the bridge luncheon given on Friday by Mrs. Frederick Strong, when twelve ladies of the garrison were invited to meet Mrs. Wisser, whom, much to the regret of all, will be among the homeward bound on the June transport. A charming luncheon was served at a round table beautiful in its decorations of pink roses and ferns. After luncheon tables were formed for bridge and the always interesting pivoting game enjoyed for some hours. The high scores were won by Mesdames Samson L. Faison, Clarence Day, and Livingston Watrous, to whom were presented dainty little sewing cases made of pink brocaded satin. To Mrs. Wisser was presented a bridge set with two packs of cards, and a tiny score, all of which were encased in a pink satin case. Those who were present were Mesdames John P. Wisser, Samson L. Faison, William Forsyth, Jack Hayes, Clyde Crusan, Livingston Watrous, Clarence R. Day, Allen B. Smith, Jerome Pillow, William E. Shedd and Henry Kilbourne.

entertained with a dinner on Friday for Colonel and Mrs. Henry C. Hodges, Major and Mrs. Frank Albright, Colonel S. D. Sturgis, Major and Mrs. Thomas Schley, Major and Mrs. Guy Palmer, and Colonel Carl Reichmann. The table was attractively decorated in different shades of pink, a low bowl of pink flowers and ferns marking the center of the table, while the candle shades echoed the dainty color note. After dinner the party attended the 25th Club hop.

On Friday of last week Major and Mrs. Guy G. Palmer gave a dinner for twelve. A large basket filled with pink sweet peas and ferns made a lovely centerpiece for a perfectly appointed table, around which covers were placed for General and Mrs. Frederick Strong, Colonel and Mrs. Samson L. Faison, Major and Mrs. Frank Albright, Major and Mrs. Thomas Schley and Captain and Mrs. Hugh Wise. Later the hop of the 1st Infantry brought a very pleasant evening to a close.

Lieutenant and Mrs. John Herr were hosts on Wednesday evening when they entertained at bridge in honor of Mrs. John Guilfoyle. The pivoting game was in order and played until 11 o'clock when a delicious supper was served. The high scores were by the ladies were held by first, Mrs. J. P. Barney, who was given as prize a Japanese bowl; the second was won by Mrs. John Fair, and was a Japanese vase; Mrs. Walter Short won the third, a china tea caddy, while Mrs. Jerome Pillow was "consoled" with a box of stationery. General Strong's prize was an ash receiver, Captain John Fair won a gold lacquer box for collar buttons; while Lieutenant Jerome Pillow was given a deck of cards for the lowest score. Mrs. Guilfoyle was presented with an attractive and novel tea-pot holder in the shape of a parrot. Other guests who enjoyed Mrs. Herr's hospitality were Captain and Mrs. Clarence R. Day, Mrs. Allen Smith, Lieutenant and Mrs. Robert Cheney, Colonel and Mrs. William Forsyth, Major and Mrs. Walter Short, Captain and Mrs. J. P. Barney, and Colonel John Guilfoyle.

Mrs. John Fair was hostess on Wednesday afternoon, entertaining with a bridge luncheon in honor of Mrs. John Guilfoyle. The attractive Fair quarters were filled with a profusion of flowers, the cavalry color of yellow predominating; Japanese place cards enabled the guests to find their places at the several tables where the delightful luncheon was enjoyed. Later tally cards were drawn, and the bridge games started which were played for five progressions. At the close of the afternoon Mrs. Pelham Glassford held highest score, with Mrs. Edward Carey and Mrs. Robert Cheney second and third, the prizes proving to be lovely pieces of linen with Madeira embroidery, a pair of pillow slips being the first, and tea cloths second and third. Mrs. Guilfoyle was given a pair of silk stockings as guest prize. Those present were Mesdames John Guilfoyle, John Wisser, George Bailey, Clyde Crusan, Madame McCleave, William McCleave, Frank Keefer, Swift Martin, Joseph Janda, Walter Pridgen, Job Boniface, Chalmers Hall, Henry Eames, William Forsyth, Walter Short, George Callender, Joseph Daly, Henry Lantry, Jerome Pillow, Gordon Kimball, Charles Naylor, W. H. McGill, William Nalle, Robert Cheney, Clarence R. Day, Edward Carey, Americus Mitchell, Allen Smith, Charles Willard, Samson L. Faison, Frederick Strong, Roland Gaugler, Frank Albright, Livingston Watrous, Augustine McIntyre, Roland Gaugler, Frank Albright, Livman, and Bottomley and Cockburn from Honolulu.

Capt. and Mrs. Charles Lloyd gave a dinner on Wednesday evening preceding for Capt. and Mrs. William Glassford and Lieut. and Mrs. William McCleave. The color scheme of the attractively appointed table was pink and was carried out in the centerpiece and candelshades, the cunning hand-painted kewpies which ornamented the place cards being an attractive feature of the table. Later the party went to the club to the mounted service hop.

Lieut. and Mrs. William E. Shedd were dinner hosts on Wednesday when they entertained for Maj. and Mrs. Frank Albright, Maj. and Mrs. Lewis Sorely, Capt. and Mrs. John Boniface, Capt. and Mrs. Henry Kilbourne, Mr. Henry Lantry, Capt. Jay Whitman and Lieut. and Mrs. Joseph Daly. The table was decorated in a charming manner with Shasta daisies and maidenhair ferns.

Thursday morning Mrs. Edward Carey entertained the Reading and Current Events Club.

The bi-monthly hop in the "5th Club" will take place on Saturday evening this week instead of Friday as usual, and there are a number of dinner and supper parties planned to be given that night preceding the hop. Lieut. and Mrs. Livingston Watrous will take place in the quarters of Col. Carl Reichman. The guests will be Maj. and Mrs. Frank Albright, Maj. and Mrs. Thomas Schley, Miss Lella Wilson, Col. and Mrs. Frank Keefer, Lieut. and Mrs. Richard Taylor, Lieut. and Mrs. Truby Martin, Dr. and Mrs. Albert White, Dr. and Mrs. George Callender, Lieut. and Mrs. John Corbly, Lieut. and Mrs. Roland Gaugler, Capt. Invitations have been sent out to the officers and ladies of the Garrison to be present at a reception and hop to be given on Wednesday evening of next week in honor of Col. and Mrs. John Guilfoyle by the 4th Cavalry. It will take place in the club and the pavilion of the mounted service post, and from the plans being made for the promises to be a very charming affair.

The golf tournament, which has been recently concluded, has occasioned much interest in the garrison among the women who are golf enthusiasts, and there was much interest and keen competition in the event. The tournament was won by Mrs. Kerr T. Riggs with a net score of 72. Mrs. Robert Sears, next, had a net score of 77, while the four best gross scores were made by Mrs. Frank Keefer, 104; Mrs. K. S. Snow, 113; Mrs. Jerome Pillow, 116, and Mrs. Charles Lloyd, 124. The lowest score was made by Mrs. Frank Keefer. The very acceptable first prize was a golf club.

Another tournament in which the officers will compete will be held on the Halewa links on Saturday and Sunday of this week.

FT. SHAFTER SOCIETY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
FORT SHAFTER, May 13.—Mrs. Daniel L. Howell was hostess last Monday evening at Ladies' Night at the club, and as usual quite a few gathered to play bridge. Mrs. Clyde R. Abraham held the highest score so won the prize, which was a canteen china bowl. Among those who played cards last week were: Colonel and Mrs. Charles S. Lincoln, Major and Mrs. William R. Dashiell, Madame Cochran, Lieutenant and Mrs. Ralph Holliday, Mrs. Pearson, Lieutenant and Mrs. Clyde R. Abraham, Mrs. B. W. Atkinson, Captain and Mrs. James E. Bell, Mrs. F. F. Black, Lieutenant and Mrs. Martin, Major William Weigle, Mrs. D. L. Howell, Mrs. Paul B. Malone, Mrs. T. J. Harker, and Mrs. Wittell.

The Post Sewing Club met at the home of Mrs. William R. Dashiell in the main garrison on Tuesday afternoon. This was the last meeting for this season, as all of the work on hand has been completed and as the afternoons are beginning to be quite warm the club will be discontinued until the cooler season. Among Mrs. Dashiell's guests last Tuesday afternoon were: Madame Cochran, Mrs.

F. F. Black, Mrs. Pearson, Mrs. Wittell, Mrs. Harker, Mrs. Clyde R. Abraham, Mrs. John S. Sullivan, Mrs. William Reese Scott.

A very charming dinner party last Thursday evening was that at which Lieutenant and Mrs. Clyde R. Abraham entertained at their home in the cantonment. Around the attractively decorated table covers were placed for Major and Mrs. William R. Dashiell, Mrs. Pearson, Madame Cochran and the host and hostess.

The informal hop which was scheduled for this week was postponed on account of the Navy Relief Ball falling on the same date, and as quite a few had planned to attend this very enjoyable dance it was thought best by the hop committee to abandon the plans for a hop at Shafter.

Colonel and Mrs. Daniel Lane Howell have issued invitations to a reception in honor of General and Mrs. Wisser on Friday afternoon, May 19.

Major and Mrs. Ira Fredendall, parents of Lieutenant Lloyd R. Fredendall, arrived last Tuesday from Nagasaki on the transport Sherman, and will be the house guests of Lieutenant and Mrs. Fredendall for the next few months. Major Fredendall has been on duty in Japan for the past couple of years, but is now en route to the mainland.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Alfred Rockwood are entertaining at dinner this evening in their attractive quarters in the cantonment.

Major and Mrs. William R. Dashiell had Colonel and Mrs. Charles S. Lincoln as their dinner guests last Monday evening; later they took their guests to the Bridge Club at the 2nd Infantry Officers' Mess.

Lieutenant William E. Covell and Captain Albert Clark left last week for the windward side of the island where Lieutenant Covell is in charge of some engineering work being done in the vicinity of Kahana. They will be absent from the post about ten days.

The Lytell-Vaughan Stock Company is becoming very popular and some very excellent plays are being enjoyed by those who care for the theatre. On Thursday evening when the stock company played "Seven Keys to Baldpate," there were many from Shafter who motored to town to see it. Among those from the post noticed among the audience were: Lieutenant and Mrs. Paul R. Manchester, Lieutenant and Mrs. Woodfin G. Jones, Lieutenant and Mrs. John E. Richardson, Miss Catherine Lenihan, Lieutenant and Mrs. Douglas T. Greene, Lieutenant and Mrs. K. B. Lyman, Lieutenant Charles Lyman, Lieutenant and Mrs. T. J. Camp, Lieutenant and Mrs. F. A. Sloan, and Dr. Delber.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Paul R. Manchester were host and hostess at a most enjoyable supper last Sunday evening at their quarters in the cantonment. Supper was served at small tables, and at each table covers were placed for four. In the dining room Mrs. Manchester used pink and white as her color scheme and a large bowl of white chrysanthemums adorned the center of the table while the candlesticks with dainty pink shades gave an attractive touch of color. Mrs. Paul B. Malone served the salad, and Mrs. William R. Dashiell served the fish aspic. Lieutenant and Mrs. Manchester's guests included Major and Mrs. William R. Dashiell, Captain and Mrs. Paul B. Malone, Lieutenant and Mrs. Claire Bennett, Mrs. Pearson, Madame Randolph, Mr. Bayard Randolph, Major and Mrs. M. J. Lenihan, Colonel and Mrs. B. W. Atkinson, Major Weigel, and Lieutenant Thomas Crystal.

A notice has been received that the moonlight dance at the Oahu Country Club will be on May 16th, the night before the full moon. These are always such enjoyable affairs that there are a great many from Shafter who always attend.

Lieutenant and Mrs. A. H. Dalton entertained informally at dinner Thursday evening at their home in the cantonment.

Captain and Mrs. Robert P. Howell motored out to Schofield last Tuesday evening and attended the dance given by the 1st Infantry.

KILL COCKROACHES

Easy Matter to Exterminate These Filthy Pests.

Even a feeble imagination can think of the germs the cockroach must bring as it crawls around the kitchen and pantry, contaminating and spoiling food. Now is the time to kill off the cockroaches and free your home from the repulsive insects. A dozen cockroaches killed now is better than killing hundreds later.

A two-ounce box of Stearns Electric Paste, which you can get for 25 cents from any druggist, will rid your home of cockroaches or water bugs. It is much better than powders, as it can not blow away and get into the food. Easy to use and an absolute exterminator. Directions in 15 languages in every package.—Adv.
